

Diploma In

Hospitality & Tourism Management

LEVEL 4 & 5

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Diploma in Hospitality & Tourism Management from ASTI will equip you with the knowledge, skills, and attributes to become an effective and ethical manager. This program will prepare you for a high-flying career with the world's most prestigious hospitality brands. Also, this course will give you the skills to manage people, businesses, and operations in international hotels and world-class hospitality companies.

During your year of study, you will also learn to assess your own self-development and develop your team leadership and presentation skills. You can access a range of industry engagement opportunities, industry-led workshops, and fieldwork visits to travel-related exhibitions and destinations. Such opportunities help you develop critical insights into the industry.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Our tourism and hospitality courses combine practical experience with academic understanding to help you succeed in the travel, tourism, and hospitality industries. This course captures the key trends that transform the industry today, from a greater emphasis on sustainability and responsible management to social equity and investing in digital innovations to encourage entrepreneurship.

This is the right course for you if you want to focus more on tourism and less on the business side of things - although there are plenty of opportunities to develop your managerial skills. Throughout the course, we'll show you how to apply your knowledge, and you can put it into practice with optional work experience.
